

Press Release

PENTAMETERS THEATRE

presents

Mirror Mirror by Robert Calvert
Nostalgia for the future

a futuristic fantasy, set in 2030, by the renowned writer, poet, musician & lead singer with Hawkwind Robert Calvert (9th April 1944-14th August 1988)

“a precise potency” Time Out ****

“Well worth seeing, a unique piece of science fiction visionary theatre”
“funny and touching” Fringe Review*

Mirror Mirror was written in 1979 by Robert Calvert, inspired by his friend, Helen Mirren. It portrays Eleanor Bryant (Eva Gray), her psychochromic dress which responds to her feelings and moods, a multiperspectival mirror which reflects her image as others see her, and her encounter with a Mirror Technician from Reflexotronics (Christian Devellerez).

Directed and produced by Léonie Scott-Matthews who first presented Robert Calvert at Pentameters in 1969 reading from his play ‘The Box’. He subsequently read his poetry there and Léonie Scott-Matthews commissioned him to write the successful play ‘Stars That Play with Laughing Sam’s Dice’ which has had several productions at Pentameters and elsewhere over the years.

Mirror Mirror will be a multimedia event, featuring poetry, film, specially commissioned music and set designs.

Set Design/Costumes by Alice Old and Oliver Archimedes

Sound Design by Godfrey Old

Lighting by Oliver Cooper

Assistant Director/Stage Manager Deneige Barr

Special Thanks to Chris Purdon, Jill Calvert and Rob Groves

PRESS NIGHT 21st July 7.30 for 8pm

19th July-14th August 2011

Tuesday-Saturday 8pm, Sunday 5pm

Tickets £12, £10 concessions

Box Office/Press 020 7435 3648

Pentameters Theatre

(above The Horseshoe pub)

28 Heath Street, Hampstead, NW3 6TE

One minute from Hampstead tube station, entrance in Oriel Place

www.pentameters.co.uk